

Catch the Replay by Dimensional - 2021 Hot Topics: Inflation, Crypto, & Market Highs

Dimensional Fund Advisors hosted a webinar on Friday, September 10th regarding the recent media headlines around inflation, cryptocurrency, and current market levels. We find it helpful to our clients to provide perspective regarding these hot topics outside of the major media headlines. When it comes to the markets, research and data can help temper feelings and emotions in order to help us make sound and objective financial decisions.
